

Tò Nihimá

"OUR MOTHER WATER"

Hózhó means balance, beauty, and having the right relationship with all living things. Caring for our ocean is part of this responsibility, and by learning about the ocean, we can treat it as we would a family member.

Náhookos'ááhji Tónteel

E'É'AAHJI Tónteel

HA'Á'AAHJI Tónteel

tó't'iish
Arctic lamprey
Lethenteron camtschaticum

Éj' Naakaii
beluga Delphinapterus leucas

Tségháán
Greenland halibut
Reinhardtius hippoglossoides

Ch'ééh Digháhii
green turtle Chelonia mydas

SQ'T'izí
Arctic sand star Leptychaster arcticus

Éj' Naakaii
humpback whale
Megaptera novaeangliae

Ch'ééh Digháhii
loggerhead Caretta caretta

Éj' Naakaii
sperm whale
Physeter macrocephalus

Tségháán Nitsaa' Yit'áá'
Northern puffer
Sphoeroides maculatus

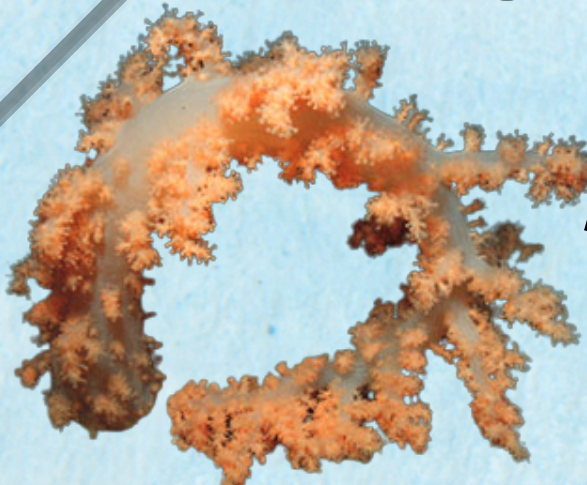

Na'ashó'ii Éizhinii
giant Pacific octopus Enteroctopus dofleini

tó' hashkéhé doot'izhigii blue shark Prionace glauca

Na'ashó'ii Éizhinii
Caribbean reef octopus Octopus briareus

yoo fíichii'ii'
Antarctic soft coral Gersemia antarctica

tó' hashkéhé tiger shark Galeocerdo cuvier

Té-Sido Naaldlooshii'íí'kizhigii' leopard seal
Hydrurga leptonyx

Éj' Naakaii
killer whale Orcinus orca

SHAD'ÁAHJI Tónteel

Diné Name
Common Name
Scientific Name
Genus Species